

Buffalo County 4-H Volunteer of the Year Nomination

This award traditionally recognizes one certified adult leader/volunteer that has made an educational impact on the lives of 4-H members. The individual typically goes “above and beyond” their 4-H responsibilities, performs an excellent job as a 4-H project or organizational leader on the club or county level, and/or provides outstanding support, guidance, or leadership to 4-H members or at 4-H events.
